The Ship of Rescue for Those who Take Shelter in Allah

Shaykh Aḥmad Zarrūq رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ

also called:

Al-Wazīfah az-Zarrūqiyyah

Translation and preface by

FOREWORD

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

I praise Him and I thank Him with a praise and a gratitude that befits His copious blessings. May His prayer of blessing and His salutation of peace be upon His choicest creature, Sayyiduna Muhammad, on his family and on his Companions.

Having said that: We have translated this wazifah of the noble Shaykh Ahmad Zarruq from Fez, titled Safina-tun-Naja li-Man ilallah Iltaja, for the ethaale thawab of our dear father, grandfather and father-in-law, the late Rashid Ahmad Mahomed, son of Molvi Suleiman from Italva, whom we are eternally grateful to. Had it in fact not been for his help, foresight, trust and reliance on Allah, this work would never have seen the light of publication in the English-speaking world. Our beloved Prophet ﷺ, has in fact taught us that gratitude to the Creator is conditional on gratitude to His creature, and the late Rashid Ahmad Mahomed was a means for this effort finding actualization just as we are through our translation and publication thereof.

We also formulate our intention that the reward of this wazifah goes to our Prophet ﷺ, and that a portion thereof goes to Shaykh Ahmad Zarruq and to the marhumin. (The reader/distributor of this work should also make intention for Ethaale Thawab for his loved ones)

PREFACE

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ، بِسْمِ اللَّهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ
وَالصَّلَاةُ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ

Shaykh Zarruq’s wazifah (the Wazifah Zarruqiyyah, as it is sometimes called) is known to and recited by many lovers of spirituality and practitioners of Islamic Sufism around the globe; and that has been so across the centuries since his instruction 600 years ago.

Its title is Safina-tun-Naja li-Man ilallahiltaja, i.e. The Ship of Rescue for whoever seeks shelter in Allah.

Shaykh Zarruq himself said about it that:

- It is the wazifah of rescue and happiness, of opening up guidance and facilitation in matters.
- It is the wazifah of victory and salvation, the hizb of active goodness and blessings, and full of immersion in the Prophetic Sunnah through formulas of dhikr recited in the morning and in the evening.

He also said that the benefit of gathering the wazifah was three-fold:

- It gathered the meanings of what other waza'if contained, while being short;
- It was taken mostly from many ahadith from many people's mouths, and both its words and meaning are clear;
- In addition to words taken from the Prophetic statements, there was the blessing of receiving them from the shuyukh. It is thus short yet comprehensive, and the invocations gathered in it are authentic.

Shaykh Muhammad b. ‘Abdir-Rahman az-Zawawi said that he read out the wazifah by Bab ‘Urwah, one of the entrance gates to the Makkan Haram, to the Mufti of the Muslims in Makkah, Shaykh Barakat al-Hattab. The latter informed him that as Shaykh Ahmad Zarruq was present at the shrine of the Prophet, ﷺ, he greeted the Prophet, ﷺ, who greeted him in return saying, “Peace be upon you, too, Ahmad. Recite to me your wazifah.” ‘I have many waza’if, Messenger of Allah,’ Zarruq said, so the Prophet, ﷺ, specified, “The one that begins with ‘Wa ilāhukum ilāhun wāhid-Your God is one God.” At that time, the wazifah was longer than it is now, containing a greater number of Qur’anic ayat and Prophetic ahadith, so as Shaykh Zarruq was busy reciting it to the Prophet, ﷺ, he, ﷺ, said, “Leave out this and keep in that,” until the end was reached. According to Shaykh Barakat al-Hattab al-Makki, Zarruq said to the Prophet, ﷺ, ‘I have not given it any title, O Messenger of Allah,’ so he, ﷺ, said: “Call it Safina-tun-Naja li-Man Arada ilallahil-Laja” - The Ship of rescue for those who wish for shelter in Allah [The final title it is known by is a slightly different variant of that].

Shaykh Zarruq said that he vouchsafed to whoever recited it twice daily, morning and evening, performed the five obligatory prayers in congregation and fasted Mondays and Thursdays, that he would die upon the shahadah of Islam, that he would not be abased among people (Shaykh Zarruq prayed in jama`ah every day for forty consecutive years).

There are numerous blessings in the wazifah, as listed by Zarruq's disciple Sidi Muhammad b. 'Ali al-Kharrubi:

- Invocations to repel contingent attacks from Shaytan;
- Beautifying the beginning of the spiritual journey and attracting perfection at its end;
- Qur'anic ayat comprising Allah's Greatest Name by which He answers if invoked and He gives if asked.
- Ayat protecting the reciter from Shaytan and his armies;

- Invocations that are enough as reward for spending the whole night in worship;
- Qur'anic passages that are equal to one-quarter or one-third of the Qur'an, as well as what is equal to the Qur'an, the Torah, the Injil and the Zabur;
- Expansion in sustenance in one's place of residence or when travelling;
- Removal of minor or major evils;
- Removal of worry and extinction of debts;
- Dhikr which, if recited in the daytime, will ensure the Garden for one who dies on that day; and if recited on that night, will ensure the Garden for one who dies in that night;
- Dhikr for which Allah completes His blessings to a servant in this world and the Next;
- Dhikr which is so rich in reward that the angels are worn out by recording all of it;
- Dhikr for which the Prophet, ﷺ, will take its reciter by the hand and make him enter the Garden.
- Invocation protecting one from snakes, scorpions and other poisonous creatures.

- Invocation for which Allah will entrust 70 000 angels to its reciter, so they will pray for him and guard him till the end of the day or the night as the case may be, and if he dies on the day or at night in which he recites it he will die as a shaheed.

- An invocation for which Allah forgives a person even if his sins are as huge as the foam in the sea.

- An invocation protecting a person from blindness, insanity, leprosy and paralysis, as well as removing loneliness in one's place of residence or on a journey.

- An invocation which, if recited at the end of a gathering of falsehood, will spare its reciter the evil of what is said in it, or which will seal him with goodness if recited at the end of a gathering of truth, etc.

May Allah accept our humble efforts and may He forgive any errors and mistakes that we may have incurred.

Durood for attaining the full measure of rewards and for seeing Rasulullah ﷺ

Abu Hurairah رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ reported Rasulullah ﷺ as saying: if anyone would like to have the fullest measure granted to him when he invokes blessings on us, the members of the Prophet's family, he should say:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ نِ النَّبِيِّ
وَأَزْوَاجِهِ أُمَّهَاتِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ وَ أَهْلِ
بَيْتِهِ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ
إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ

O Allah, bless Muhammad, the unlettered Prophet, his wives who are the mother of the faithful, his off spring, and the people of his house as You did bless the family of Ibraheem. You are indeed Praiseworthy and Glorious. (Abu Dawud)

The Mashaikh have said that whoever wishes to see Rasulullah ﷺ in a dream should to read this durood abundantly, at least 100 times a day, preferably before bedtime.

About the book

As Shaykh Ahmad Zarruq was present at the shrine of the Prophet, ﷺ he greeted the Prophet, ﷺ, who greeted him in return saying, “Peace be upon you, too, Ahmad. Recite to me your wazifah.” ‘I have many waza’if, Messenger of Allah,’ Zarruq said, so the Prophet, ﷺ, specified, “The one that begins with ‘Wa ilāhukum ilāhun wāhid- Your God is one God.’” At that time, the wazifah was longer than it is now, containing a greater number of Qur’anic ayat and Prophetic ahadith, so as Shaykh Zarruq was busy reciting it to the Prophet, ﷺ, he, ﷺ, said, “Leave out this and keep in that,” until the end was reached. According to Shaykh Barakat al-Hattab al-Makki, Zarruq said to the Prophet, ﷺ, ‘I have not given it any title, O Messenger of Allah,’ so he, ﷺ, said: “Call it Safina-tun-Naja li-Man Arada ilallahil-Laja” - The Ship of rescue for those who wish for shelter in Allah [The final title it is known by is a slightly different variant of that].
